Mrs. Zahn Reports Progress On Referendum Petitions

Albany's five elected officials Monday night assured members of the City Council that they approved the city manager form of government and would cooperate to the fullest extent if one is hired.

"If and when a city manager is appointed, we will continue to work for the best interests of the City and will cooperate with a city manager to the fullest extent," the officials said in a letter to the Council.

The letter came as an answer to opponents of the manager government who have claimed that elected officials oppose the hiring of a city manager.

The officials include Grace Higgins, tax collector and treasurer; Louis J. Hardie, city judge; Stanley C. Williams, police chief; George Glavinovich, city attorney, and Myrtle McLean, city clerk and assessor.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Kathie Zahn is conducting her referendum campaign to force the issue (whether or not Albany citizens want a city manager government) on the ballot. She said today that she has approximately one-half of the required 893 signatures needed on petitions for referendum action.

Although she has had offers of help, Mrs. Zahn said "she is working alone in order to meet more people."

If the required signatures are obtained, the Council is required either to repeal the manager ordinance or let the voters decide at a future election. If the ordinance is not blocked, it will become law April 3.

In other business, the Council approved a resolution calling for and governing the April 10 municipal election to fill eight city offices.

Judges and clerks assisting with the election will receive $9, while inspectors will be paid $10. Owners of garages used as polling places will be paid $7.50-rental for use of their buildings during the 6 a. m. to 7 p. m. voting period.

A letter from Leonard Sealy, mayor of San Leandro, commended the Council for taking steps to establish the city manager form of government.

The Council also approved the adoption of an official emblem for the City on recommendation of the Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber presented the Council with a drawing of the proposed emblem, which showed two gates opening into the horizon with this inscription: "Albany—The Northern Gateway to Alameda County."

Albany Service Clubs to Hold Joint Meeting

"The Taxpayer's Responsibility for Government Today" will be the subject used by Rex L. Nicholson, founder of the Pacific Tractor and Implement Co. of Richmond, when he addresses the combined Albany service clubs at a dinner 6:30 p. m. Monday at the Community Methodist Church.

Nicholson was invited by President Roosevelt in 1946 to serve as special assistant to the U. S. Secretary of Interior. Having reorganized the Department's administration of public lands, the speaker is recognized as an authority on natural resources of the west.

Others on the program include vocal selections by Janet O'Keeffe and Peggy Nelson, and community singing led by Claire McGaw.

Participating in the second annual inter-service club meeting are the Rotary Club, Lions Club, Exchange Club, with the Soroptimist as the hostess club.

President Nell Moore of the Soroptimist will preside over the dinner, with Sally Nelson in charge of arrangements. The Rev. Robert L. Benefield of the Community Church will give the invocation.

Members are requested to purchase tickets before 12 noon Saturday. Tickets are available from the following: Sid Weinzeimer, Exchange; Harry Woodhead, Lions; Ted Williams, Rotary; Nell Moore, Soroptimist; and from Max Etingoff, S. P. Corner or John "Tiny" Kampe, 903 Masonic Ave.

"By working with the American Red Cross during periods of emergency floods, tornadoes, fires and other disasters, doctors know first hand the good that results from contributing to the Red Cross fund," Dr. Henderson said.

Residential Workers Lead In Local Red Cross Drive

Albany's share in first reports of collections in the 1950 fund drive of Berkeley chapter, American Red Cross, amounted to $2361, according to Harold Olson of Albany, campaign chairman.

Local figures were included in the tally made Wednesday morning at a coffee hour meeting of Red Cross volunteer workers at the Berkeley Y.M.C.A. hospital house.

With a total quota of $95,898 to be raised in Albany, Berkeley, and Kensington, contributions of $30,598 were posted at the end of the first week of the drive.

State Property Considered for Pound Location

Albany today was considering six prospective sites for the construction of an up-to-date dog pound, according to E. A. Tarr, city engineer.

Mentioned as the most suitable location at a reasonable figure was a site on State owned property west of the overpass and east of Hoffman Blvd. near the present pound.

Tarr said the City applied for this property some time ago, but details of the transaction have not been completed.

Other property being considered is a tract west of the U. S. Regional Laboratory between the S. P. Railroad and the East Shore Highway, and property adjoining the City dump proper, owned by the Santa Fe Railroad.

Three sites on private property in the same area were inspected for proposed locations, but Tarr termed them as "over priced."

Meanwhile, Donald Z. McBain, deputy health officer is scouting for pre-fabricated buildings which might be moved on the new location and reconstructed to conform with the building code.

R. E. McCullough Announces for City Councilman

Robert E. McCullough, member of an Albany pioneer family, this week announced that he has filed for the post of City Councilman at the April 10 City election.

Serving seven years on the Park, Planning and Zoning Commission, the candidate said in his announcement:

"By reason of my long residence in the City of Albany, my activities in fraternal, civic and labor circles, along with my practical knowledge of business, my desire is to help the citizens of Albany solve the problems that are now present and those which may arise during the next four years.

"I feel that I am qualified to perform the duties required of a member on the City Council, and therefore, request your approval at the City election on April 10."

McCullough, who is a foreman at the California Ink Co. in Berkeley, has lived in Albany for the past 38 years and makes his home at 967 Curtis St.

He is a member of Albany Eagles, Knights of Columbus, Young Men's Institute and is a past secretary-treasurer of the San Francisco and East Bay Ink and Roller Makers Union, Local No. 5.

Four Buildings Going Up Here

Four new buildings today were under construction in Albany, including three stores and a large apartment house.

A modern three-floor building housing 10 apartments is being erected at the corner of Adams and Washington by the owner-contractor, Joe Vila & Sons of El Cerrito. The new apartment house is expected to be completed within the next two months at an estimated cost of $60,000.

Charles Grassi, Albany realtor, is owner of a building being constructed at the corner of Solano and Key Route Blvd. which will include three small stores and a home. The work has been contracted to the Guay Construction Co. for $18,000.

At 1313 Solano Ave., corner of Pomona, Paul Lind of Oakland is building an ice cream and sandwich shop at an estimated cost of $5655.

Contractors started work this week on two small stores at 1049-1051 Solano Ave., next to City Hall, for owner Vincent Muzinich, Albany shoe repairman. The estimated cost was set at $6500.

The City of Albany issued 22 permits for the construction and alterations of buildings estimated to cost $37,939 during the month of February according to E. A. Tarr, city engineer.

A 358 total, giving Shipman and Brascosco the final victory and top money by 11 pins.

High-16 Doubles Win by 11 Pins

Finishing with a blaze of glory, Shipman and Brascosco Sunday afternoon were named grand finalists in Albany Bowl's High Sixteen doubles tournament which has been running for the past month.

Zucchi and Howard took an early lead in the eight-game match with their 291 pin handicap, hanging on for five games as the pace makers. Then, as the going grew tougher, they threw a splendid sixth game holding a slim lead. However, turning under the terrific strain, their seventh and eighth games dropped down as they slid to fourth place.

Meanwhile, Bill Shipman and Jack Brascosco, who bowled virtually from scratch; Dick Treadway and B. Ahart, the youngsters from the College Bowl; and Vivian Frank and Paul Banta, veteran Albany bowlers, were all plugging along rolling games of 200 or more.

Going into the eighth and final game, it was anyone's battle. Brascosco threw a smashing 255 in the sixth game to keep his team in the battle, while he and his partner continued in the seventh with a combined 405, scoring within 30 pins of Ahart and Treadway, leaders.

In the final game, Shipman gave with a steady 181 and Brascosco smashed out a huge 245 for a 426 total. The youngsters gave way with

ALBANY SOROPTIMIST SCRIBBLINGS

Soroptimist are very busy these days. . . Inter-service club meeting Monday night. . . Our big show next month. Committees meeting all over the place. It's fun, though!

Wednesday at Pietro's, our table was graced by many guests, including the Leslie Hancock Award—a beautiful engraved brass flower container, awarded at each conference to the club having the largest percentage of members in attendance.

At the conference last October, Albany won the award but Oakland took it home. By mistake, of course.

They brought it back Wednesday, and as Cheever Mitchell Oakland's president said when she presented it:

"We found that it's quality not quantity that counts."

Accompanying Cheever were Gladys Leggett Penland and Eunice Nunez, Sue Irwin organizer of the Albany Club and member in Berkeley was also present. Lucille Haran was guest of June McMahon and Iola Hamilton was guest of Myrtle McLean.

June McMahon chairman of the day presented Dr. William D. McCarthy as our speaker. He was at one time associated with the Memorial Hospital in New York, which is the largest cancer center in the world.

Dr. McCarthy emphasized the hope for cancer—rather than dwell on its danger—and urged that every
